Where the great herds of the Toronto-area combine in one outstanding sale.

Feb. 14, 1955

Canada's Best

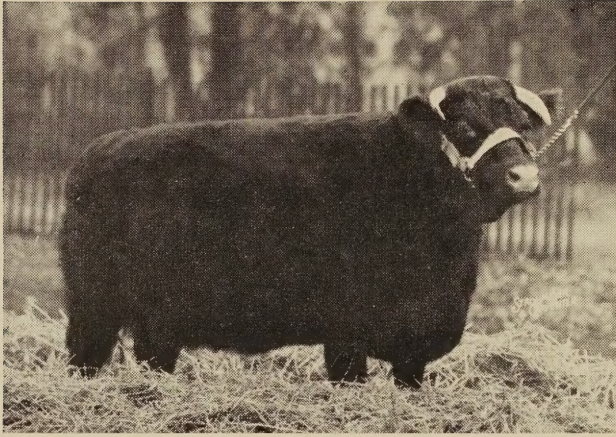

Cruggleton Permit, shown with a few members of the Sandoon herd owned by A. C. McDermott, Goodwood, Ontario. Sandoon sells a bull and five females in this sale.

The 11th Toronto Annual Sale Monday, February 14, 1955

Hays Pavillion

Trafalgar, Ontario

10 BULLS -- 37 FEMALES

Scotsdale Emma Rosebud, grand champion female, 1953 Royal Winter Fair. Lot 2 is out of her dam. Scotsdale sells two bulls and two females in this sale.

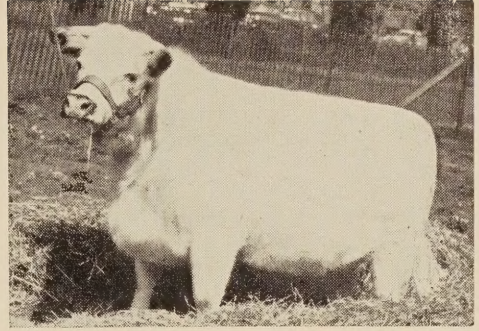

We urge you to look closely at the list of consignors to this sale. Where will you find a consignment sale where such a large percentage of the cattle come from herds that are consistently topping shows and sales of international importance. Several have their own annual sales. The cattle these consignors sell in other events have year in, year out, averaged nearly $2000. For the past several years the Toronto Annual Sale has averaged around $600.

Scene at Aberfeldy Farms, owned by Reford W. Gardhouse. They are selling four females.

Laslynnturn Grand Finale. This George Lasby entry sold in the 1953 Toronto Annual Sale for $475. One month later he was the grand champion and top selling bull ($950) at the Southeastern Regional in Ocala, Florida. He now heads one of Florida's top herds. Lasby sells a bull and two females in this sale.

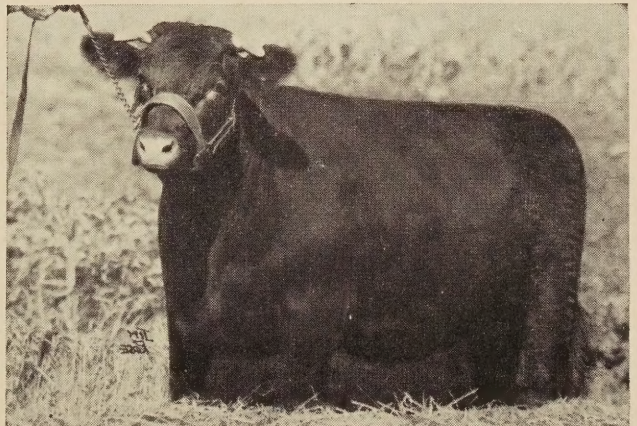

Tying for top female selling honors at the 1954 International sale was Briardale Princess Delicia 3rd by Cluny Romeo from the herd of Col. Torrance Beardmore, Mono Mills. She was purchased for $2700 by Mrs. W. L. Lyons Brown, Prospect, Kentucky. Briardale sells six heifers in this sale. The dam of lot 14 was the granddam of Briardale Princess Delicia 3rd.

In other words, in this sale one can buy the same quality and breeding that is topping the breed at a fraction of the price.

This is just an average size offering . . . 49 lots. You can find some sales with more cattle. BUT? you will NEVER find a sale with AS MANY of the kind you want to bid on, selling at prices you want to pay.

This is the "home consignment sale" of the famous TORONTO-AREA. All of the consignors are proud of the quality reputation it enjoys. All strive to put in tops.

Wyndstone Golden Charlock 3rd sold for $1050 by L. C. Scott to Robert McFarlane, Grand Rapids, Michigan, in the 1952 Beath-Deacon-Murphy-Scott sale. A heifer from the same cow sold for $1350 in their 1953 sale to Hi-Ho Farms, Phoenix, Maryland. The dam of lot 4 is a full sister to Wyndstone Golden Charlock 3rd.
